INSANE NEGRO SAILOR RUNS AMUCK

POLITICAL HOT AIR FELT ON THE WHARVES DURING DEBATE.

Thomas Sails for the East, Leaving Some Men Here—The Pilot House Moved—Harbor News and Notes.

There was a big crowd at the Navy dock yesterday to see the transport Thomas off for Manila and China. Lads were very much in evidence and the many ladies aboard the big steamer made the departure more like that of a regular passenger steamer.

A provost guard rounded up stragglers in the morning, but there were a score of soldiers seen ashore after the vessel left and just as she was pulling out a man in regulation uniform and with a cartridge belt about his waist slipped from a port hole and hurriedly made his exit from the scene. The steamer Maui was brought around from the Fishmarket wharf to her berth at the Wilder wharf yesterday. She has had a thorough overhauling and is now in splendid condition. Her interior woodwork has all been repainted and varnished and the fitting in her saloon touched up. The vessel looks like new. She will take the Claudine's place next week while that vessel is undergoing her overhauling.

NEGRO RUNS AMUCK.

A big Jamaica negro named George, one of the crew of the Fort George, which arrived from British Columbia yesterday, went crazy on the trip down and was put in irons after a hard tussle. The case of the insane man was reported to the quarantine officer and the man will be sent to the asylum this morning, as he is undoubtedly crazy.

The man's insanity was first noticed on the 17th inst. He attacked the man at the wheel, claiming that he had threatened to shoot him. After this he loudly declared his intention to quit work and proceeded to do so.

Captain Morse went forward to see the man. The negro declared that he was through work for the voyage and he and Captain Morse differed instantly, with the result that George was locked up until he concluded that he would rather work and have his liberty than be idle and confined. He was not in the brig long before he said he was willing to work, so he was let out. His stay in the brig seemed to make him savage, for he no sooner released than he took charge of the ship and began to heave overboard everything movable on deck. If any one approached him he brandished a razor and threatened to do some carving. Captain Morse and the greater part of the crew jumped him and soon had the irons on him, and as he had very strong objections to going below, he was chained to the hatch, where he remained until the vessel reached port. The man is a giant in size and strength, being six feet four high and weighing in the neighborhood of 250 pounds.

"HOT AIR" MEETING.

Politics was warmly discussed on the Inter-Island wharf yesterday morning for about two hours. The speakers were very much in earnest and talked at each other in great style. It was more in the nature of argument than oratory, however, and after it was all over the speakers were of the same mind as before they started. These little "hot air" meetings are becoming more and more frequent as time goes on and the agitators are becoming very numerous on the front. You can get any political argument from single tax at the Pacific Mail wharf to Hawaii for Hawaiians at the old Fishmarket wharf, the socialists, independents, republicans and democrats holding out along the line between the two points mentioned.

Lehua's Cargo.

The Lehua, arriving last night from Maui, brought the following cargo: Sixty-two hides, 11 bundles goat skins, 1 bundle sheep skins, 16 calves, 6 mules, 8 horses, 1210 packages sundries.

Jennie Wand at Kaanapali.

The schooner Jennie Wand was discharging lumber at Kaanapali when the Lehua left.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Mille Morris sailed for windward ports yesterday.

The Eclipse for Makena and Kona and Kau ports sailed yesterday.

The Archer is taking sugar from the Mikahala, which arrived yesterday from Honolulu.

The Thomas sailed about 1:30 yesterday. She took 550 tons of coal. There was a big crowd on the wharf to see her off.

The big ship E. B. Sutton is loading from barges in the stream. She will probably get away Monday.

fixed on its foundation of piles today. The new army barge was launched yesterday at the Fishmarket wharf near where it was built. It slid into the water without a hitch. Another one will be built soon.

The big four-masted ship Fort George, after a voyage of thirty-one days from Oyster Harbor, arrived yesterday with 3,000 tons of coal for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co.

The Mikahala came in from Kukulhaele yesterday morning with 6,272 bags of sugar for F. A. Schaefer & Co. Parser Christian reports as follows: Weather on Hamakua and Kona coasts fine but no rain. Mauna Loa was discharging at Punaluu Thursday. Sugar as follows: H. A. Co., 4,000 bags; A. H. Co., 2,848; H. S. Co., 2,500; P. S. M., 180. Total of 10,528 bags.

The guests accuse their host Ah Chun. Invited them to Gamble and then called in Police and had them arrested.

If looks could have killed there would have been several dead Chinese in the police court yesterday. It was during the trial of thirty-one Chinese who were charged with gambling and being present at the playing of a game of chance where something of value is lost or won.

All of the Chinese pleaded not guilty to the charge. The police were ready for a dozen stool pigeons and the proprietor of the place, Ah Chun, to testify that the men were gambling. The defendants were put on the stand and each and every one of them examined swore that he had been specially invited to attend at Ah Chun's by that individual, and that when they had all assembled the host had telephoned for the police and the whole crowd had been run in.

The judge did not seem to take into consideration how the players had been trapped. From the evidence he had made up his mind that they were guilty and so he fined all of them $4 and costs apiece. The police spies and proprietor of the place will probably not be as popular among their countrymen as heretofore, for even Chinamen hate a stool pigeon.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE U. S. DISTRICT COURT

Three additional rules in regard to juries and jurors were adopted yesterday in the United States district court. There will be no session of the United States district court today.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock is the time set for the hearing of the Dunne case in the district court of the United States.

Four candidates for citizenship were before Judge Estee in the United States district court yesterday. They were as follows: Frank A. Kucivako, a native of Russia, with Charles Creighton and E. R. Hendry as witnesses; Theo. Wolf, a native of Germany, with Wm. Green and H. T. Waity as witnesses; Julius G. Wessels, a native of Germany, with John Hendry and Capt. W. J. Weir as witnesses.

A CHRISTIAN CHAPEL TO BE OPENED TOMORROW

A Christian chapel will be opened in Palama, near the corner of King and Liliha streets, tomorrow. Rev. W. K. Azbill will conduct the service and O. Ota will deliver the leading address. Short speeches will be made by the Rev. J. C. Hay and others. All Christian workers, especially Japanese Christians and those interested in mission work among the Japanese, are cordially invited to be present at 3 p. m. when the service will begin.

Change of Officers.

At a meeting of the directors of the Oahu Sugar Co. held yesterday, H. A. Isenberg was elected treasurer in place of J. F. Hackfeld, resigned, who is soon to depart on a visit to Germany. E. Klump was elected in place of H. A. Isenberg as secretary. The matter of the new pumping plant was left to the agents, H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd.

PLAGUE AT OSAKA.

Such is the News Received from Government Sources.

Dr. Carmichael, the quarantine officer, is congratulating himself upon having insisted upon the fumigation of the oriental cargo of the Carlisle City, lately here with a cargo from Japan.

"The Australia brought a telegram to Dr. Carmichael, stating that the plague was prevalent in Osaka, Japan, and that the town had been declared infected. As Osaka is in close communication with Kobe and Yokohama by rail, it will be seen that under the circumstances goods coming from those ports will have to be fumigated and thoroughly disinfected before being landed here.
